

"HELP"

From the mind of Yatta Savice

Description:

This film illustrates the dangers that take place when we are far from the Word of God and his presence. Jesus said in John 15:5, "I am the vine, ye are the branches; He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing." We are nothing without God. Life will ultimately weigh us down and crush us without the presence of God in our lives. This film captures not only what happens when God's presence is far away from us, but also what happens when we receive the Word of God and allow it to manifest in our lives.

Overview Sound:

Banging and screaming of one who is in deep agony.

Scene 1:

A man is running in an open field. We hear the noise of him panting and huffing as he is running and looking back behind him.

Scene 2:

The film then cuts to the man in a bedroom wrapped in his blanket. A wide shot of the room appears and then proceeds to showing someone placing a laundry basket in the room.

Scene 3:

Back to the open field. The man is running and tripping over himself. Begins to frantically move around and move his head as if he is trying to get something out of his head. The agony and screaming overview sound proceeds.

Scene 4:

The person opens the room again and places food upon the dresser. We hear in the background deep pain of a male who is crying.

Scene 5:

Film cuts to the man in the closet banging his head on the wall. This is where we are shown where the screaming of agony is coming from.

Scene 6:

Back to the open field and he slows down running. He has a confused and lost facial expression. He then puts his hands on his head and begins screaming, "HELP" "HELP" "HELP"

Scene 7:

Back to showing his room. The person places a Bible on his nightstand and the mans head automatically shoots up and he begins deep breathing as if he is waking up from a nightmare and catching his breath. The man starts breathing fast. The agony and screaming stop.

Scene 8:

Goes back to showing him in the field walking calmly with his hands in his pocket. The camera captures a wide angle of the open field with him walking. The audio will be sounds of natures, trees, the wind blowing, birds chirping.

Scene 9 (Final Scene):

The Bible is open and the scene zooms in onto Matthew 4:$ "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God." Then as the scene closes, a Victor Thompson melody song is playing in the background.

THE END.
